Discovery

Ask yourself the following questions:

1. Have I come to a place in my spiritual life where I know that I have eternal life? That is, do I know for certain that if I were to die today, I would go to heaven?
2. If I were to die today and stand before God, and he were to say to me, "Why should I let you into my heaven?" What would I say? What are God's requirements for me to get into heaven?

The central and most important message in all the Bible is summed up in the following outline.

I. Grace

- A. Heaven is a free gift. Write out Romans 6:23.

---

- B. It is not earned or deserved. Write out Ephesians 2:8-9.

---

---

II. Man

- A. Man is a sinner. Write out Romans 3:23.

---

---

- B. Man cannot save himself. Write out Isaiah 59:2 and Proverbs 14:12.

---

---

III. God

- A. God is merciful; therefore he doesn't want to punish us. Write out Jeremiah 31:3.

- B. God is just; therefore he must punish sin. Write out Ezekiel 18:4 and Jeremiah 31:30.

---

---

IV. The Lord Jesus Christ

- A. Who he is: Jesus is our Savior, fully God and fully man. Write out John 1:1, 14.

---

- B. What he did: Jesus paid for our sins and purchased a place in heaven for us, which he offers as a free gift. This gift is received by Saving Faith. Write out 1 Peter 2:24 and Isaiah 53:6:

---

---

---

V. Saving Faith

- A. What it is not: Saving faith is not mere intellectual believe nor temporary faith. Write out James 2:19.

VI. Assignment Opportunity

A. Review this lesson and complete the next lesson.

B. Work on memorizing this important Bible verse:

"And this is the testimony: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life." (1 John 5:11-12)

C. Read John 1-3.

Assurance of Salvation

Review the following verse and check the box after quoting it correctly from memory:  1 John 5:11-12

I have read John 1-3.  Yes  No

Memorize I John 5:11-12:

"And this is the testimony:
God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son.
He who has the Son has life;
he who does not have the Son of God does not have life."

I John 5:11-12

The verses you will memorize and study in the next five lessons will equip you for your first encounters with the enemy. His first approach is often to cast doubt on the work God has done in your heart. Although you won't hear his audible voice, he will whisper this in your mind: "You don't think you are saved and your sins forgiven just by believing and receiving Christ do you? Surely that is not enough.

What will your answer be? Your only hope of successfully resisting such an attack is to resort to God's Word. What does God say about the matter? That is the important thing for you to know.

On the basis of this "testimony" – God's written Word – you can be convinced you have the Lord Jesus Christ, and with him eternal life. You can thus overcome in this first test of your faith. The attack may recur, but now you can meet it with the Word of God in your heart.

Assurance of Answered Prayer

Review the following verse and check the box after quoting it correctly from memory:  1 John 5:11-12

I have read John 4-6.  Yes  No

Memorize John 16:24:

"Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete."

John 16:24

Another attack of Satan may be to cause you to doubt the effectiveness of prayer. He may whisper to you. "You don't think God is really interested in you? He's far away, and concerned about more important things. Surely you don't think he'll hear your prayers-much less answer them!"

But with Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord, you have the unique privilege of speaking directly with your heavenly Father through him. God wants you to come confidently into His presence through Christ and to talk to him about everything (look up Philippians 4:6 and Hebrews 4:14-16). He is intensely interested in you and your needs.

In the memory verse for this lesson, John 19:24, Jesus was speaking to His disciples the night before His crucifixion. He did not tell them they had never before asked for anything in prayer. But he said they had not asked in His name. You yourself have probably prayed many times, especially when in trouble. But as a believer in Christ you can ask in Jesus' name, because you belong to him. To ask in His name means to ask in His authority and on His merit. Just as the Father answered Jesus' every prayer, so he will answer you when you ask in Jesus' name.

Memorize the promise, apply its truth, and experience the joy of answered prayer.

V. Develop A Daily Quiet Time

Here are some helpful hints for planning your daily Quiet Time.

A. Determine the necessity of a Quiet Time.

Decide that this is God's will for you. It's not important, but essential! It is the secret to spiritual success (Jeremiah 29:11-14a; Isaiah 55:6-7; Jeremiah 9:23-24; Philippians 3:7-8).

Why is a Quiet Time so important?

1. Because ... apart from him we can do nothing. (John 15:5)
2. Because ... it provides strength and stability for our lives. (Isaiah 40:28-31)
3. Because ... of the example of Old Testament men. (Psalm 5:3; Exodus 33:11)
4. Because ... of the example of Jesus' life. (Mark 1:35; Matthew 14:23; Luke 4:12; Mark 14:32)
5. Because ... of the example of godly men and women down through history.
6. Because ... God desires our fellowship.

B. Determine a specific time for your Quiet Time. Begin each day early alone with God. (Mark 1:35)

C. Determine a specific place for your Quiet Time. Jesus withdrew to a Lonely place, away, and secluded. This is necessary. Allow NO Interruptions! Go to that same place; it's your appointment with God.

D. Determine to spend the first few minutes practicing God's presence. Maybe only one or two minutes. Just affirm he's there! (Psalm 46:10)

- E. Determine to read the Bible first and then pray.
George Mueller did this because he said that he always found something new to praise God for that way. Don't read to teach, read to be challenged and inspired in your own life.

What should you read? Begin with the book of Genesis for your Old Testament portion; read two chapters per day until the book is finished. Pick a section of the New Testament and stay with it, reading it again and again every morning for two solid weeks, or maybe three weeks (Colossians 3, Ephesians 4, John 15, Philippians 2, Galatians 4, Luke 14, John 10, John 6, Romans 8, 2 Timothy 1, Titus 3, etc.).

Make notes, list lists, ask questions. Pray before you read of the Spirit of wisdom and revelation - "Lord, speak to me through these words."

- F. Determine to have a balanced daily prayer life. Here is a simple pattern for praying:

1. Be still for a few moments and thank God for His presence.
2. Pray these four important kinds of prayer (Ephesians 6:18):
  - ADORATION – Reflecting on God Himself. Praise him for His love, His power and majesty, and His wonderful gift of Christ.
  - CONFESSION – Admitting your sins to God. Be honest and humble. Remember he knows you and loves you still.
  - THANKSGIVING – Telling God how grateful you are for everything he has given - even the unpleasant things. Your thankfulness will help you see His purposes.
  - SUPPLICATION – Making specific requests, both for others (intercession) and for yourself (petition).

The first letters of these four words form the word "ACTS." Use this as a mental guide for practicing a balanced prayer life.

- G. Determine to memorize Scripture on a daily basis. This may come out of the passage you are reading in the New Testament for days at a time.

- H. Determine to keep your appointment with God everyday. Purpose to spend at least 10 minutes with God each day. Here's a simple guide:

.5 Pray for Guidance	Psalm 143:8
.5 Practice His Presence	Psalm 46:10
4.0 Read the Bible	Psalm 119:18
2.5 Prayer
... Adoration	I Chronicles 29:11
... Confession	I John 1:9
... Thanksgiving	Ephesians 5:20
... Supplication	Matthew 7:7
2.5 Bible Memory
10 Minutes

Memorize I Corinthians 10:13:

"No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it."

I Corinthians 10:13

Still another attack from Satan may be along this line: he will whisper to you, "You have life, all right, but you are a weakling; you have always been a weakling." He will remind you of some sin which has gripped you for years. He will point to something of which you are keenly aware and say, "you are weak and you will not be able to stand against this temptation. You may be able to stand against others, but not this one.

How will you answer him? Will you attempt reason? Will you try to produce your own arguments? Will you run to see what other people say? Or will you resort to the invincible Word of God?

Knowing I Corinthians 10:13 will allow you to ward off this attack. God promises victory. It belongs to you as His child. Believe him and you will see how God does things that are impossible with men. It will thrill you to see the chains of lifetime habits broken by His mighty power.

III. God Will Never Abandon Us

"God is faithful"

A. Poem: "Footprints in the Sand"

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, the other to the Lord. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints. Then he noticed that there were many times along the path of his life that there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. That really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it.

"Lord, you said that once I decided to walk with you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why in times when I needed you the most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious child! I love you and would never leave you. During your times of trials and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness."

I John 1:9

Although victory over sin is rightfully yours there will be times when you will miss the way of escape. You will fail and sin against God. Once you do, your enemy will be on the job immediately: "Now you've done it. Aren't you supposed to be a Christian? Christians don't do those things.

But God makes provision in His Word for the failures of His children, as we see in I John 1:9. We receive His full forgiveness as we confess to him our sins. To confess a sin means to uncover it and call it exactly what God calls it. This honest confession must include the willingness to forsake the sin. God promises not only to forgive us, but also to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. What a gracious provision.

Memorize Matthew 6:33:

"But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."

Matthew 6:33

God has given us many privileges. But we also have certain responsibilities. The Bible tells us what God expects of us.

Many promises in the Bible are unconditional. But most of those which concern our growth as Christians are conditional upon our obedience to his will. The next several lessons will highlight eight of these responsibilities, which will help you build the foundation for a healthy Christian life.

Who will you live your life for? What has first place in your thought and plans? Jesus often challenged his disciples to consider their commitment to him and his kingdom. He said, "If anyone would come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for Me will save it" (Luke 9:23-24).

Following him in this way may mean struggles and trials, but also the privilege of resting in Christ: "Come to Me," Jesus said, "all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light" (Matthew 11:28-30).

As you memorize and apply Matthew 6:33, seek to know Christ better every day. As you put him, his will, and his work first in your daily life, you will begin to fully experience God's love and care, for he has promised to provide all of your daily needs.

Memorize Philippians 4:13:

"I can do everything through him who gives me strength."

Philippians 4:13

Occasionally you may experience failure and discouragement. But the Scriptures remind us of the Christian's true source of strength. Paul recorded God's promise this way: "My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is made perfect in weakness" (Corinthians 12:9).

Centuries ago, God told his people, "Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with My righteous hand" (Isaiah 41:10). This promise is true for us today.

In all the trials and challenges you face, God's presence can sustain you. We see this promise of God's strength throughout the Scripture, as in Proverbs 18:10—"The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous run to it and are safe."

As you memorize Philippians 4:13, boldly claim the Lord's strength for every challenge and opportunity in your daily life, and watch him work.

By living according to your Word.
I have hidden your Word in my heart that I might not sin against you."

Psalm 119:9, 11

By having Scriptures in your heart we can experience victory over sin, and can please God in all areas of life.

As the Apostle Paul said farewell to the believers from Ephesus, he committed them to God's care and reminded them that God's word "can build you up and give you and inheritance among all those who are sanctified" (Acts 20:32). The Scriptures give us food for spiritual maturity, and prepare us for our eternity with God.

Not having a regular intake of Scripture will stunt our spiritual growth as surely as improper nourishment harms a child. "Like newborn babies," the Apostle Peter wrote, "crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation" (Peter 2:2).

As you memorize Psalm 119:9, 11, meditate on the ways God's word can build you up, and look for evidence in your life of how he is doing this.

F. The "Word Hand" shows us the five methods of learning from the Bible. Each of these methods are vitally important to our Christian growth. Imagine a hand holding the Bible with the five fingers labeled as follows:

1. Hearing the Word from godly pastors and teachers provides us insight into others' study of the as well as stimulating our own appetites for the Word. (Romans 10:17)
2. Reading the Bible gives us an overall picture of God's Word. Many find helpful a daily reading program, which takes them systematically through the Bible. (Revelation 1:3)
3. Studying the Scriptures leads us into personal discoveries of God's truths. Writing down these discoveries help us organize and remember them better. (Acts 17:11)
4. Memorizing God's Word enables us to use the "sword of the Spirit" to overcome Satan and temptations...to have it readily available for witnessing or helping others with a "word in season." (Psalm 119:9, 11)
5. Meditating on God's Word is used in conjunction with each of the other four methods. It is the thumb of the Word Hand. Only as we meditate on God's Word—thinking of its meaning and application to our lives—will we discover its transforming power at work in us. (Psalm 1:2-3)

John 13:34-35

What is love? John said, "This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins" (I John 4:10). God is the source of love, and also the perfect example of what love is. God is love.

His love is sacrificial. Christ's death is an eternal reminder of this. God's love is also unconditional. You never have to worry about it diminishing. It is not dependent on our worthiness to receive it, for no one deserves God's love—and yet he loves everyone.

"Dear friends," John wrote, "since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another" (I John 4:11). As you memorize John 13:34-35, think of some ways you can show God's love to others.

Matthew 28:18-20

When considering water baptism, many people wonder why it is so important. "Why should I be baptized," they say, "I have accepted Jesus Christ into my life and have received the free gift of eternal life by believing in him alone. Isn't that all I need to do? Certainly believing in Jesus Christ alone for our salvation is what we must do in order to have eternal life (Acts 16:31). But once we have genuinely done this, we will also want to obey him completely (I John 2:5-6). This includes God's instruction regarding water baptism. His Word speaks specifically about the importance of us being water baptized. Let's explore this important truth together.

Holy Communion is an important celebration in the life of a Christian. Even though it is not directly connected to our salvation, the Lord initiated this ordinance so that we would remember the importance of his death and anticipate his Second Coming. "Each man should give what he has decided in his heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

2 Corinthians 9:7

God has inexhaustible riches for his children. We are heirs to all he possesses, for "if we are children, then we are heirs—heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ." (Romans 8:17)

God is eager to share these riches with us: "He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also along with him, graciously give us all things?" (Romans 8:32)

Everything you have is from God. You can show your gratitude to God by generously giving yourself—your time, your possessions, your talent, and your money—to those who have needs.

Giving is sharing what God has given to us. We cannot give more than God will give back to us. Jesus said, "Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you." (Luke 6:38)

As you memorize II Corinthians 9:7, think of specific and practical ways to share with others what God has freely given to you.

"I rejoiced with those who said to me, 'Let us go to the house of the Lord.' "

Psalm 122:1

The Church is made up of all true Christians everywhere—and it includes many thousands of local churches. God instituted these local churches to help Christians grow spiritually. You will have fellowship with other believers there—including opportunities to serve and encourage them. You will receive “training in righteousness” (II Timothy 3:16) as God’s Word is preached and taught in the local church.

Scripture teaches us to seek out this kind of fellowship: “Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.” (Hebrews 10:24-25).

Memorize Ephesians 1:10:

"For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."

Ephesians 2:10

Your salvation wasn't earned by your good deeds. We are all saved by faith, and not by good works (Ephesians 2:8, 9). Nevertheless God wants your life now to be filled with good works—doing what is right and helpful to others. In this we are to follow the example of Jesus, who "went around doing good" (Acts 10:38).

It is faith alone that saves, but the faith that saves is never alone.

Paul wrote that believers should be "careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone" (Titus 3:8). As you seek to do God's will through good works, you—and others through you—will profit. And God will be glorified! He has good works planned especially for you to accomplish.

Memorize Mark 5:19:

"Go home to your family and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you."

Mark 5:19

What could you tell someone about how your life has changed because of Christ? Have you thought about how to give a clear explanation of your faith? Peter wrote, "Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that have" (I Peter 3:15).

As someone who has experienced God's saving love, you have much to share. In Mark 5 we read how Jesus encountered a man who was demon-possessed and living in tombs. With power Jesus healed the man.

As Jesus was leaving, the man begged him to let him come along. Jesus' reply—the memory verse for this lesson—was that the man should instead return home and share his new-found life with others. The man did so, and we read Mark 5:20 that "all people were amazed."

We too were living in the "tombs" of deadly sin before we accepted Christ as our Savior. And so we also have good news to tell others!

I. Exploring Mark 5:19

A. What did Jesus tell this man to share with members of his family?

Ephesians 4:11-12

Did you know that every believer of Christ is a minister? You as a disciple of Jesus are called to be a minister! The Bible says you are uniquely gifted for ministry! Do you know what gift(s) God has given you? Your task, as a child of God, is to discover your gift with the help of your pastor. Once you have discovered your gift, you must develop it by using it in ministry and by receiving training from your pastor and church. Finally, the Lord Jesus Christ wants to employ and deploy you in his life-saving mission. God has something very special for you to do. How exciting! Don't miss it!!! Remember...discover your gift(s), develop it, and be deployed as a minister of the KING!
