

WHERE TO GO WHEN YOU HIT A DEAD END

A Journey Through Jonah • October 28, 2007 • Pastor Rob Carlson

Jonah 1

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

I BELIEVE IT FOR AT LEAST 5 REASONS

1. I believe it because it is _____.
2. I believe it because _____
 - The Ultimate Grounds for Acceptance
 - The Unity of the Bible
 - The Bible's Indestructibility
 - It's Enduring Popularity
 - The Testimony of Great Men and Women
 - Accuracy of the Manuscripts
 - Scientific Accuracy
 - The Fulfillment of Biblical Prophecy
 - The Law of Compound Probabilities
 - The Contribution of Archaeology
 - Historical Accuracy According to Christ
 - Sacrifice of Millions
 - It's Transforming Power
 - The Testimony of Christ
 - The Resurrection of Christ
 - The Self-Witness of Scripture
3. I believe it because this _____ of _____ is _____.
4. I believe it because it is _____ with the _____ and _____ of _____.
5. I believe it because _____ it.

See Matthew 12:39-41.

WHERE TO GO WHEN YOU HIT A DEAD END

1. Realize that problems will _____ and how we _____ with them is what _____.

Where to Go:

- >> Turn to _____.
- >> Depend on _____.
- >> Trust the _____.
- >> Understand that the _____ is as important as the _____.
- >> _____.

2. Recognize that many _____ in life are the _____ of our _____.

Where to Look:

- >> Look _____ - at your past to learn from it, but don't live in it.
- >> Look _____ - the mirror and own your sin.
- >> Look _____ - the Bible and rebuild your life.
- >> Look _____ - to Jesus and receive His mercy and grace.
- >> Look _____ - and determine to make the rest of your life the best of your life.

3. Remember that God is _____ than any _____.
- >> God's Part --
 - >> My Part --

SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS:

1. What do you do when you hit a dead end? What do many people you know do?
2. Review the points and verses from this lesson. What personal application can you make from this teaching?
3. What does the Jonah story teach you? How does it inspire your faith personally?
4. Take some time right now to pray for the needs of those in your small group.