

One Mind, One Mission

March 30, 2008 • Philippians 2:1-11 • Pastor Rob Carlson

7 Keys to Intimacy:

mentally physically spiritually

emotionally
relationally

sexually financially

People lock each other out:

- ➔ Instead of intimacy, there is _____.
- ➔ Instead of oneness, there is extreme _____ and _____.
- ➔ Instead of togetherness, there is _____, _____, and _____.
- ➔ Instead of "us," it is "_____ vs. _____."
- ➔ Instead of closeness, kindness and tenderness, there is _____, _____ and _____.

The Continuum of Personal Relationships:

The First Key of Intimacy:

Philippians 2:5-- Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ
Jesus. [KJV]

_____ Intimacy

Mindset #1

We will live to _____ and _____ - agreed-upon _____ and hold _____ to them.

Resist ideas contrary to God's word.

1. Say no to _____.
2. Say no to _____.
3. Say no to _____.
4. Say no to _____.
5. Say no to _____ communication.
6. Say no to _____ the other for granted.

To be like-minded we must:

1. _____.
2. _____.
3. Do it _____.

Make up your mind; make it your mission.

Mindset #2

We will live to _____ each other.

Notice the qualities of our relationship with Christ:

- E _____
- C _____
- F _____
- T _____
- C _____

Make up your mind; make it your mission.

Mindset #3

We will live to _____ each other.

A short course in human relationships:

The least important word: _____.

The most important word: _____.

The two most important words: _____.

The three most important words: _____.

The four most important words: What is your _____?

The five most important words: You did a _____.

The six most important words: I want to _____ you better.

>>> THESE ARE YOU WORDS, NOT ME WORDS.

Make up your mind; make it your mission.

Small Group Discussion Questions:

1. Why do people experience separation, alienation, and isolation in their relationships? What is the key to enjoying closeness and intimacy in our personal relationships?
2. Review the points and verses from this lesson. What personal application can you make from this teaching?
3. How does being of one mind help foster togetherness and oneness in our relationships? Explain and discuss. Re-read Philippians 2:1-11.
4. Take some time right now to pray for the needs of those in your small group.
